Policy 6.2.6 – Standard of Service Provision

Policy Statement:

This policy explains the standard to which all Kids Are Kids! services and activities must be provided and applies to all employees of Kids Are Kids!

Guiding Principles

Each employee of Kids Are Kids! is responsible at the level of authority as determined in their JDF, to ensure that all client services are developed and provided in a manner which ensures they meet the:

1. Client expectations
2. Principles and Objectives of the Western Australian Disability Services Act
3. National Standards for Disability Services and the Indicators of Practice

Client expectations of Kids Are Kids!

A client of Kids Are Kids! should be able to reasonably expect the following:

1. An appropriate service for the matter of condition for which they present to KAK.
2. The best possible service at all times based on the latest evidence.
3. A service that is self-directed by the client/family that is goal directed and achieves specified outcomes.
4. To be treated with respect and have an easy and honest communication with all staff at Kids Are Kids!
5. To participate in decisions which affect them.
6. That their family and role in the community will be acknowledged as important
7. To receive services from staff who have the necessary skills for the work that they do.
8. That the staff who provide their service, are well supported and have access to the resources that they need to undertake their work, including information and equipment.
9. That the staff providing their service have the highest level of integrity.
10. That systems are designed and implemented to prevent accidental or inadvertent harm to them whilst they are receiving services.
11. That should they have concerns, they will be able to talk to someone immediately and have their concerns dealt with to their satisfaction.
12. That if something goes wrong with their service, there is a system in place to openly report, investigate and fix the underlying problems and that they are informed of this system.
13. That Kids Are Kids! is continuously monitoring its service provision and working to improve the quality of its services.

Review of the Policy

This policy will be reviewed on a bi-annual basis. However, if at any time the legislative, policy or funding environment is so altered that the policy is no longer appropriate in its current form, the policy shall be reviewed immediately and amended accordingly.

Appendix 1 – Principles and Objectives of the Disability Services Act 1993

1. People with disabilities are individuals who have the inherent right to respect for their human worth and dignity.
2. People with disabilities, whatever the origin, nature, type or degree of disability, have the same basic human rights as other members of society and should be enabled to exercise those basic human rights.
3. People with disabilities have the same rights as other members of society to realise their individual capacities for physical, social, emotional, intellectual and spiritual development.
4. People with disabilities have the same right as other members of society to services which will support their attaining a reasonable quality of life in a way that also recognises the role of the family unit.
5. People with disabilities have the same right as other members of society to participate in, direct and implement the decisions which affect their lives.
6. People with disabilities have the same right as other members of society to receive services in a manner which results in the least restriction of their rights and opportunities.
7. People with disabilities have the same right of pursuit of any grievance in relation to services as have other members of society.
8. People with disabilities have the right to access the type of accommodation and employment that they believe is most appropriate.
9. People with disabilities who reside in country areas have a right, as far as is reasonable to expect, to have access to similar services provided to people with disabilities who reside in the metropolitan area.
10. People with disabilities have a right to an environment free from neglect, abuse, intimidation and exploitation.

Objectives of the Disability Services Act

1. Programmes and services are to focus on achieving positive outcomes for people with disabilities, such as increased independence, employment opportunities and inclusion within the community.
2. Programmes and services are to contribute to ensuring that the conditions of the every day life of people with disabilities are the same as, or as close as possible to, norms and patterns which are valued in the general community.
3. Programmes and services are to be integrated with services generally available to members of the community.

Policy 6.2.6 – Standard of Service Provision

4. Programmes and services are to be tailored to meet the individual needs and goals of the people with disabilities receiving those programmes and services.
5. Programmes and services are to be designed and administered so as to meet the needs of people with disabilities who experience additional barriers as a result of their age, gender, aboriginality, culturally or linguistically diverse backgrounds or geographic location.
6. Programmes and services are to be designed and administered so as to promote recognition of the competence of, and enhance the community perception of, people with disabilities.
7. Programmes and services are to be designed and administered so as to promote the participation of people with disabilities in the life of the local community through maximum physical, social, economic, emotional, intellectual and spiritual inclusion in that community.
8. Programmes and services are to be designed and administered so as to ensure that no single organization shall exercise control over all or most aspects of an individual's life.
9. Service provider organisations, whether disability specific or generic, shall be accountable to those people with disabilities who use their services, the advocates of such people, the State and the community generally for the revision of information from which the quality of their services can be judged.
10. Programmes and services are to be designed and administered so as to provide opportunities for people with disabilities to reach goals and enjoy lifestyles which are valued by the community.
11. Programmes and services are to be designed and administered so as to ensure that people with disabilities have access to advocacy support where necessary to ensure adequate participation in decision making about the services they receive or are seeking.
12. Programmes and services are to be designed and administered so as to ensure that appropriate avenues exist for people with disabilities to raise, and have resolved, any grievances about services.
13. Programmes and services are to be designed and implemented as part of local coordinated service systems and integrated with services generally available to members of the community. Public sector agencies are to develop, plan and deliver disability programmes and services in a coordinated and pro-active way.
14. Programmes and services are to be designed and administered so as to respect the rights of people with disabilities to privacy and confidentiality.
15. Programmes and services are to have regard for the benefits of activities that prevent the occurrence or worsening of disabilities and are to plan for the needs of such activities.
16. Programmes and services are to be designed and implemented to: (a) consider the implications for the families and carers of people with disabilities; (b) recognise the demands on the families of people with disabilities; and (c) take into account the implications for, and demands on, the families of people with disabilities.

Policy 6.2.6 – Standard of Service Provision

17. Programmes and services are to be designed and administered so as to: (a) provide people with disabilities with, and encourage them to make use of, ways to participate continually in the planning and operation of services they receive; and (b) provide for people with disabilities to be consulted about the development of major policy, programme or operational changes.
